

Office of the Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner

HUMAN RESOURCE POLICY

7.1 EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT 7.02 LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

Purpose

To provide opportunity for the Information and Privacy Commissioner (IPC) employees to enhance their knowledge, skills, and abilities in areas identified by the Commissioner as critical existing or future needs.

Application

This policy applies to all IPC employees

Policy

The IPC acknowledges the importance of learning and development for all levels of employees and recognizes that learning is mutually beneficial to both the employer and the employee.

The IPC's primary focus on Learning and Development will be on developing knowledge skills and competency which will assist the IPC to carry out its mandate including the following: access to information and protection of privacy, IT skills, negotiation conflict resolution and communication skills, Human Resource skills and dealing with people skills, information security and records management as approved by the Commissioner.

The IPC is most interested in providing learning opportunities for employees doing their current job or a future job in the IPC.

All permanent employees in the position of Analyst are required to complete the five course IAPP Certificate program. ERO's will be encouraged to take this program as well but it is not a condition of their employment. Employees taking this program will be allowed four hours per week to work on the course assignments. This is the only program where time at work will be provided.

All permanent employees will be encouraged to take the Critical Conversations two day workshop.

Tuition fees for the IAPP program and Critical Conversations two day workshop will be reimbursed by the IPC.
