The Canadian Bar Association held its 3rd Annual Access to Information and Privacy Law Symposium September 14 – 15, 2012 in Ottawa, Ontario. This symposium is the essential national conference on recent developments and trends in privacy and access law. Attendees hear from leading experts and regulators, and have an opportunity to share their own thoughts on common access and privacy issues. This year, the focus of the conference was on where we are now, and where we are going with respect to our privacy and access regimes. The Commissioner participated in this conference as a speaker.
