The Canadian Bar Association held its Annual Access to Information and Privacy Law Symposium September 27 - 28, 2013 in Ottawa, Ontario. This symposium is the essential national conference for lawyers on recent developments and trends in privacy and access law. Attendees hear from leading experts and regulators, and have an opportunity to share their own thoughts on common access and privacy issues. This year, the focus of the conference was on major changes and other developments within Canadian privacy and access regimes. The Commissioner participated in this conference as a speaker on two panels.
