

Office of the
Saskatchewan Information
and Privacy Commissioner

Guide to LA FOIP

The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Purposes and Scope of LA FOIP

- Quasi-Constitutional Status
- The Purposes of LA FOIP
  - Object or Purpose Clause
    1. The Right of Access
    2. Access to an Individual's Own Personal Information
    3. Right to Request Correction of Personal Information
    4. Protection of Privacy
    5. Independent Review of Decisions
- The Scope of LA FOIP
  - Definition of a Local Authority
  - Records Subject to LA FOIP
    - Personal Information
    - The Meaning of 'Possession' or 'Control' of Records
  - Records Excluded from LA FOIP
    - Subsections 3(1)(a), (b), (c)
    - Subsection 23(1.1)
    - Records to Which Section 22 Applies
  - Existing Rights Preserved
    - Subsections 4(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f)

Chapter 2: Administration of LA FOIP

- Minister of Justice & Attorney General
  - Access & Privacy Branch
- Local Authorities – Roles & Responsibilities
  - Head of a Local Authority
  - The LA FOIP Coordinator or Privacy Officer
  - Section 50: Delegation of LA FOIP Responsibilities
  - Notices and the Manner of Giving Notice
  - Protection from Liability
  - Routine Disclosure & Active Dissemination
  - Proactive Reporting of Privacy Breaches

- Information and Privacy Commissioner – Roles & Authorities
  - Section 38: Appointment
  - Procedural Fairness
  - Section 32: Privacy Powers
  - Section 42: Conduct of Review
  - Section 43: Powers of Commissioner
  - Section 43.1: Power to Authorize a Local Authority to Disregard Applications or Requests
  - Section 44: Report of Commissioner
  - Section 45 (FOIP): Confidentiality
  - Section 47 (FOIP): Non-compellability
  - Section 48: Certain Provisions Adopted
  - Section 52: Annual Report
- Court of Queen's Bench – Role & Responsibilities
  - Section 46: Appeal to Court
  - Section 47: Powers of Court on Appeal
- Section 51: Burden of Proof
  - Standard Required to Meet Burden of Proof
  - Who has the Burden of Proof
  - Affidavit Evidence
- Offences and Penalties under LA FOIP
  - Section 54: Proceedings Prohibited
  - Section 55: Immunity from Prosecution
  - Section 56: Summary Offences
  - Section 66(3) (FOIP): Proceedings Prohibited

Chapter 3: Access to Records

- Section 5: Who has a right of access
- Search for records
- Records not responsive to access to information requests
- Section 5.1: Duty to assist

- Section 6: Making an application for access to information
- Section 7: Responses from local authorities
- Section 7.1: Applications deemed abandoned
- Section 8: Severing records
- Section 9: Fees and fee estimates
- Section 10: How access is provided
- Section 11: Transfers of access to information requests
- Section 12: Extensions of time
- Section 30: Individual's access to their own personal information
- Section 38: Requests for review
- Section 39: Dismissing or discontinuing reviews
- Section 43.1: Disregarding access to information or correction requests
- Section 46: Appeals to the Court of Queen's Bench
- Section 49: The exercise of individual rights by authorized representatives
- Section 53.1: Access to manuals
- Section 53.2: Records available without an application

Chapter 4: Exemptions from the Right of Access

- Interpreting exemptions
  - Limited and specific
  - Balancing interests
- Class and harm based exemptions
- The mandatory and discretionary exemptions
  - Exercise of discretion
- Public interest overrides
  - Subsections 18(3), 28(2)(n)
- Tests and guidance on exemptions
  - Sections 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 29, 30 and subsection 28(1)

Office of the
Saskatchewan Information
And Privacy Commissioner

503 – 1801 Hamilton Street
Regina SK S4P 4B4
306-787-8350

www.oipc.sk.ca